In the automobile manufacturing industry, Eastern and Midwestern States generally employed more workers than Western States, and Northern States displayed greater variations than Southern States.

- Maine, New Hampshire, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, and New Mexico were among the 11 States that employed fewer than 5,000 workers in June 2008.

- Michigan, Indiana, and Ohio were the three States that employed more than 50,000 workers in June 2008.

- New York, Texas, Alabama, and California were among the 24 States that employed 5,000 to 49,999 workers in June 2008.

BLS

FIGURE 16 Employment in the combined automobile manufacturing industries (NAICS 3361, 3362, and 3363), June 2008

(United States total = 919,800)

SOURCE: Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages (QCEW), Bureau of Labor Statistics