

CALL FOR PRESENTERS:

2013 Consumer Expenditure Survey Microdata Users'
Workshop

July 17-19, 2013 Postal Square Building, Washington, DC

www.bls.gov

Have you used the Consumer Expenditure Survey (CE) in your work? More specifically, have you used the public-use microdata files from the CE in research you have conducted? If so, we would like to invite you to present your work at the upcoming 8th annual CE Microdata Users' Workshop, to be held July 17-19, 2013, following the half-day CE Survey Methods Symposium on July 16.

We are seeking presentations of up to 30 minutes by users of the CE data for the workshop. There are no limits to the areas of research or degree of sophistication of the papers we seek. They can be descriptive or applied. They can present simple hypothesis testing or elegant model building. Work in progress is as welcome as finished research. However, when preparing the presentation, please note that the emphasis should be on how the data were used, questions or problems encountered, and similar discussion. Results of the research are an important, and perhaps necessary, component of these presentations; nevertheless, the emphasis sought is on application.

While we cannot offer any honoraria to presenters, the workshop is free of charge to all who come. Past workshops have averaged about 50 attendees, so you can anticipate a significant audience for your presentation. In addition, previous workshop attendees have cited these sessions consistently among their favorites, especially the presentations giving practical examples of how the data can be used in research.

If you would like to present at the workshop, please complete the attached submission form, and send it to the proposal review team (CE_Symposium_Workshop_2013@bls.gov). If for any reason you are unable to fill in the form, or if you require additional space, you may also send your submission in the form of an e-mail, as long as the topics requested in the submission form are clearly identified and addressed.

If you have a colleague who might be interested in presenting, please forward this invitation. Also please note that the workshop is an excellent forum for graduate students to gain experience presenting their work, and to get helpful comments on research in development, including dissertation proposals or theses in progress.

If you would like to be part of the 2013 CE Microdata Users' Workshop program or have any questions about the workshop, please contact us by May 15, 2013.
