

Dr. Stephanie Holt currently serves as a Federal Project Officer and Labor Market Information Expert with the Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration- Office of Workforce Investment. Dr. Holt brings over 25 years of experience in education, training, and workforce services which she acquired while working in various leadership roles at the local, county, state, and federal level. As a Certified Workforce Development Specialist, Dr. Holt has leveraged her educational qualifications, professional credentials, and personal competencies to provide guidance and technical assistance to grantees within the Southeast Region of the United States. She continues to elevate and support efforts associated with improving labor and workforce systems for minority and underserved communities.